

APPROVED QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT UNDER THE PUBLIC & ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH ACT 1987

As delegate of the Minister for Health and Ageing, pursuant to section 6 of the Public and Environmental Health Act 1987, I hereby approve the following qualifications for eligibility to the appointed as an authorised officer in local government under section 7 of the Public and Environmental Health Act 1987:

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN QUALIFICATIONS

1. Certificate of Competency, Food and Drugs Act (issued by the Central Board of Health).
2. Diploma in Public Health Inspection and Diploma in Meat and other Food Inspection, Royal Society of Health.
3. Diploma in Public Health Inspection, Royal Society of Health and Meat Inspection Certificate, TAFE; and Food Technology subject of Health Surveying Course, TAFE.
4. Technical Certificate in Health Surveying, TAFE.
5. Standard Competency Test (1986), Regency TAFE. In addition, the person holding such qualification must also hold a qualification recognised at 22/4/86 for appointment under the Health Act and or at 22/4/86, they held an appointment under the Health Act.
6. Associate Diploma in Health Surveying, TAFE.
7. Associate Diploma in Environmental Health, TAFE (name change only).
8. Bachelor of Applied Science (Environmental Health), Flinders University of South Australia (Renamed Bachelor of Environmental Health).
9. Graduate Diploma in Environmental Health Practice (GDEHP), Flinders – Flinders University of South Australia.

QUALIFICATIONS GAINED EXTERNAL TO SOUTH AUSTRALIA

10. Diploma in Environmental Health, TAFE (Western Australia).
11. Bachelor of Applied Science (Environmental Health), Institute of Technology (Western Australia).
12. Bachelor of Applied Science (Environmental Health), University of Western Sydney, New South Wales. (This includes the same qualification from this institution under its previous titles of Hawkesbury Agricultural College, and University of Western Sydney, Hawkesbury).
13. Bachelor of Applied Science (Environmental Health), Swinburne Institute of Technology (Victoria).
14. Health Inspection Certificate, TAFE (New South Wales).
15. Postgraduate Diploma in Environmental Health, Curtin University, Western Australia.
16. Master of Environmental Health (MEH Curtin – Curtin University of Technology, Western Australia).
17. Bachelor of Public Health, majoring in Environmental Health – La Trobe University, Bendigo, Victoria.
18. Bachelor of Science in Environmental Health – Griffith University, Queensland.
19. Diploma of Applied Science (Environmental Health) – Hobart TAFE, Tasmania.
20. Bachelor and Master environmental health degrees accredited by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health UK (CIEH) - http://www.cieh.org/professional_development/EH_degree.html?terms=accredited+degree.
21. Baccalaureus Technologiae in Environmental Health, Central University of Technology (formerly known as Technikon Free State), Free State, South Africa

.....
Dr Kevin Buckettt
Director, Public Health
Department of Health
Government of South Australia

16/01/2012